Your World and my World
by: Albert Hammond

C Em
It isnâ€™t easy to say goodbye,
Am C
I try to understand the reason why
F C G
my bodyâ€™s shaking, my heart is aching within me.
C Em
From my window I watch you go,
Am C
heâ€™s waiting for you in the street below,
F C G
his arms wide open, while mine are cold and so empty.

C F
â€˜Cause your world and my world, theyâ€™ve drifted apart, Dm - G G7
in yours the sun is shining, in mine itâ€™s raining,
and Iâ€™m the only lonely one.
C F
And your life and my life, theyâ€™ve gone separate ways,
Dm - G G7
in yours a new tomorrow, in mine just sorrow,
and Iâ€™m the only lonely one.

C Em
2. Through the teardrops that cloud my eyes,
Am C
I see the image of a love gone by,
F C G - G7
a silhouette that I wonâ€™t forget for a long time.
C Em
The days are longer now that youâ€™re gone,
Am C
without your loving arms to keep me warm, F C G C
my future lies under cloudy skies with no sunshine.

+ CHORUS + G (2x) â€|.. (orig. = capo 3rd) (Albert Hammond)
