Can t help myself but think about you
Cus everything you do makes me feel brand new
When you look at me, I can finally breathe
It feels like nothin can go wrong
Put my past on a shelf, I want you to myself
I m so happy that you came along

Girl it s you
You re my everything
It was you
That has helped me see
The truth
Yeah it s love I m feelin
With you tonight
Cus baby it s you

I ve always been the type of guy that s afraid to love
Always ended up heartbroken, think y know where I m comin from.
But since you ve entered my life, I ve never felt so alive
No longer anything to fear
Yeah you re different, in my eyes, perfect
You make everything crystal clear
