He plays it on a 12-string guitar, but you can of course play it on a normal one, too. D and Em in the verses are barchords. Another video of him playing is here: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xLqScj_1FiA (You can see the chord-progression a bit better there.) It should be pretty accurate even though I m not 100% sure about the last bridge, but you can probably figure it out by playing. Have fun!
