(intro) Luciano (Alborosie) is never too late to stop my pray(stop my pray) wake up(wake up) (stop violence inna jamaica you seet rastafari)

(chorus) Luciano (Alborosie)
solidarity and harmony brings unity
in our family
yees we tired of the tribal war(yes we tired of the tribal war you seet) solidarity and harmony is what we need
in our family
yees we tired of the tribal war(yes we tired and tired)

(verse 1) Luciano
youths and youths on the corner mek a stop and consider what you wanna do with your life set a foundation for the future stay away from war and strive cause inna this ya time we all need to survive oh gosh

(chorus) Luciano (Alborosie)
yees we tired of the tribal war(yes we tired of the tribal war you seet)
in our family
yees we tired of the tribal war(yeeeeeeeeey)

(verse 2) Alborosie
these are rainy days cah mi wonda cant you never recognize di potential of this split paradise hey look pon di stone cah you might not seet rise again shine again blind you again warm up your life once again that are you brother you dont him dont a fool same complexion same roots same direction drop di tool love keep you safe and cool rastafari rule heeeey

(chorus) Luciano (Alborosie)
solidarity and harmony brings unity
yees we tired of the tribal war(yes we tired of the tribal war you seet)
in our family
yees we tired of the tribal war(yes we tired and tired)

(verse 3) Luciano
what we want to see a stop priority amongst the young and elderly is respect for the almighty they ve no hearts would fill with love to put away hatred and grudge and restore the peace on mother earth yeeeeeah

(chorus) Luciano (Alborosie)
yees we tired of the tribal war(yes we tired of the tribal war you seet)
yees we tired of the tribal war(yes we tired and tÃ-red)
