This is where I broke my wrist
Where I thought I could fly
Thinking I was Superman
So you know you can't cry
Cause I wanted to be just like them
And save my city from crime
I wanted to be just like them, just like them, just like them

Campbell's chicken noodle soup
When you stay home from school
Remember watching MTV
When there was still music for you
Just a kid on Cholla Street
From my city built in the sand
My father said you'll be a man, be a man, be a man

I guess Santa Claus is just not real

And Batman can't fly
And nobody's invincible

Because I know people die

I saw it on the news one day
