E

Gabriel he held the weight of

E4

E

Everybody s toxic waste and

G#m

With the load upon his shoulder

G#m6

G#m7

Couldn t sleep as he got older

C#m

Ooooh

A

What it means to be someone that

E

Everybody has to talk to

F#

Everybody has to talk to

C#m

Ooooh

A

Our Gabriel, he had no one that

E

He could talk to

F#

Gabriel, he had no one that he could talk to

E

Looking for a place to be or

E4

E

Someplace he could hide his grief

G#m

Gabriel ran to the beach and

G#m6

G#m7

Set out for the open sea

E

Heaved the baggage from the sands

E4

E

Aboard the vessel with his hands

G#m

And when he couldn't see the land

G#m6

G#m7

Released their sins on his command

C#m

Ooooh

Our Gabriel, he had no one that

E

He could talk to

F#

Gabriel, he had no one that he could talk to

(C#m A E F#)

E

As the problems slowly drifted

E4

E

All the weight was quickly lifted

G#m

From his back into the sea

G#m6

G#m7

He finally felt he was free

E

When he got home after months

E4

E

Sat down and waited for lunch

G#m

He looked down at an empty dish

G#m6

G#m7

Cause all their sins had killed the fish

C#m

Ooooh

A

What it means to be someone that

E

Everybody has to talk to

F#

Everybody has to talk to

C#m

Ooooh
