

Anchor

Alejandro Escovedo

Never done this before, but I have appreciated everything on here so I decided to contribute, and I love this song. Your kind corrections are appreciated.

Intro:

G D C
G C
G D C
G D

Verse 1:

G D C
Ive always loved your love
G C
In and out, up and down
G D C
If your love was a ship,
G D
Id pull your anchor and Id christen it.

Chorus:

Em G
Im in love with love, (Im in love)
Em G
And it broke me in two (in two)
Em G
Im in love with love,
D
Look out babe its going to break you, too

Verse 2 (same as 1)

I pull your ship across the ocean wide
Hold my breath and dive, dive, dive
Held me at the bottom and ask me why
Open my mouth and Id tell them why, cuz

Chorus:

Im in love with love, (Im in love)
And it broke me in two (in two)
Im in love with love,
So look out, babe, its going to break you, too

Solo: I am not sure what s going on here but I play some Am and Em and it sounds alright!

Em

Were huddled on the benches

G

Were sayin our prayers

Em

Two lovers in the mist

G

With the salt in their hair

Em

Im in love, Im in love

G

And it broke me in two

Em

Im in love Im in love,

D

Its gonna break you, too, yes it will

Verse 3:

The waves are breaking in a foreign tongue

Understand but feeling numb

Your love was a ship,

Id pull your anchor and hang on to it

Chorus twice and then back to intro
