D	C
Have you been wearing holes in your boots out there
D	C
Have you been kicking bones in the desert sand
D	C
There s a wolf inside the cave and another in the clouds
D	C
I ve seen them chewing on, on the shadows in your eyes

D	Am7	C	G
And it s here at home I wait for your wanders to be still
D	Am7	C	G
Oh it s here at home I wait for your wanders to be still
D	Am7	C	G
And I wont drag my feet in whatever dirt you track in
D	Am7	C	G
No I wont drag my feet in whatever dirt you track in

D	C
Will you look at me when your face shows the lines of years
D	C
While you ve been away I have needed your strong hands
D	C
California hills will surely welcome us back home
D	C
But the way toward the crop of gold is not far from the snow
D	C
Oh, the way toward the crop of gold is not far from the snow

D	Am7	C	G
And it s here at home I wait for your wanders to be still
D	Am7	C	G
Oh it s here at home I wait for your wanders to be still
D	Am7	C	G
And I wont drag my feet in whatever dirt you track in
D	Am7	C	G
No I wont drag my feet in whatever dirt you track in
