

Of Treasure
Alestorm

Intro: Em D Em Bm Em D Bm Em

Em

A dreaded curse - Is spoken of

G D Em

By all men of the sea - An ancient tale

G D Em

Of pirate s woe - And sailor s tragedy

Em

A map was drawn - By grizzled men

G D Em

Forgotten years ago - A chest of glory

G D Em

And mortal sin - That none should ever know

G

And they searched and they searched

D

And they searched and they searched

Em Bm

For forbidden treasure old

G D

And this curse, and this curse,

Em Bm

and this curse, and this curse

Em Bm Em

Will forever now be told

Em

A pirate captain - Of many years

G D Em

Had heard these whispers grim - But lust for treasure

G D Em

And endless wealth - Had all but blinded him

Em

He hired a crew - Of hardy men

G D Em

To help him in his cause - They never knew

G D Em

The danger of - This bounty s evil force

And they searched and they searched

And they searched and they searched

Em Bm
For forbidden treasure old
G D
And this curse, and this curse,
Em Bm
and this curse, and this curse
Em Bm Em
Will forever now be told

Em
Now stormy nights - When moon is full
G D Em
Will herald in their call - A ghostly crew
G D Em
Who loot and kill - til all before them fall

Now listen, lad - Remember this
G D Em
When foul winds blow a gale - Lest shadow come
G D Em
And write your name - In adage to this tale
