

Ive Got What It Takes
Alex Day

Intro

C F
C F

          C          F                  Am                  G
There are so many souls who don t follow their dreams
      C                  F                  Am                  G
Ignoring their passions makes no sense to me
      C                  F                  Am                  G
I could lie or waste time to follow the seasons
      C          F                  Am                  C
But I think I d regret it when I fall asleep

          F          E                  Am                  C
I don t have superpowers, there s no magic spell
      F          E                  Am                  C
But I remain faithful for things to go well
      C                  F                  E                  Am
I m not looking for miracles, at least for today
C          G          C
I know I ve got what it takes

          C          F                  Am                  G
And it s hard when you stop and it s never at ease
C                  F                  Am                  G
Stars are so far but they ll always be seen
      C                  F                  Am                  G
I can t pretend I just make things with no rhyme or reason
      C                  F                  Am                  C
But boy the work s worth it when I fall asleep

          F          E                  Am                  C
I don t have superpowers, there s no magic spell
      F          E                  Am                  C
But I remain faithful for things to go well
      C                  F                  E                  Am
I m not looking for miracles, at least for today
C          G          C
I know I ve got what it takes

          F
There s no end in sight
          E                  Am
So I ll take my time crossing the line
          F                  G
I ll keep holding on, keep singing this song

C# F# A#m G#
And if people don't like it, well it won't bother me
C# F# A#m G#
Failure's still something I can say I've achieved
C# F# A#m G#
I won't forget that opinion, moving on isn't easy
C# F# A#m C#
But not doing things would be boring indeed

F# F A#m C#
I don't have superpowers, there's no magic spell
F# F A#m C#
But I remain faithful for things to go well
C# F# F A#m
I'm not looking for miracles, at least for today
C# G# C#
I know I've got what it takes

C# G# C#
I know I've got what it takes
