

Downtown

Alex Lloyd

Alex LLoyd - Downtown

Submitter: Sam Frost (samueLFrost@yahoo.com)
(use courier font for this to come out right)
Comments and criticism welcome.

e-0-----
B-0---0--3-0-0-1-3-0--1-1-----
G-0-0-----0-0-----
D-0-----2-2-----
A-2-----3-3-----
E-3-----

G C Em

the same old loose lipped cannon
speaks for you today
alone without your talent
thereâ€™s not much to say

G C Em

love is all gone wrong
so many lost today

G C F

and the reasons why theyâ€™ve
vanished in the haze

D F

(2*) calling downtown

C G D

no reasons do they owe you
tell me howâ€™d you think it came to be

calling downtown

F

calling downtown

C G D

how they come to love you
when you didnâ€™t want to set them free

C G D

G C(with intro)

G C Em

we donâ€™t forgive to know you

will you ever see

G C Em

know reasons do we owe you

howâ€™d it come to be

G C Em

the leaves have lost their shadows

deep amongst the grey

G C F

i hope that youâ€™ll be friendly

i heard someone say

D F

(2*) calling downtown

C G D

no reasons do they owe you

tell me howâ€™d you think it came to be

calling downtown

F

calling downtown

C G D

how they come to love you

when you didnâ€™t want to set them free

Instrumental over verse

G C Em (a few times)

D F

C

itâ€™s a stranger (calling downtown)

G

D

the further away you get

F

(calling downtown, calling downtown)

C

itâ€™s a stranger (calling downtown)

G

D

the further away you get

its easy to start from the back of the line

F

where thereâ€™s no one to tell you youâ€™re still behind

C

G

D

itâ€™s a stranger the further away you get

and you never miss your friends

F

until you can't relate to the people beside you here today .

C

G

D

it's a stranger the further away you get

calling downtown

calling downtown