G D A Bm
A hundred numbers on my wall
Some with names I sometimes call
I drop a coin and watch it fall

A
Tryin to get connected to you

G D A Bm
A thousand hours all alone
My softest pillow turns hard as stone
This is the longest night on my own

Lying here thinking of you

Bm A
Sometimes I shake my head and laugh to myself
I d like to start again with somebody else

Bm C#
I m like a broken toy forgotten on the shelf

CHORUS

D C#
Baby, I could have been someone

Bm A
I could have been something

Bm A A G

It would have been nothing to die for you

D C#
Baby, you re going to need me

Bm A
You d better believe me

Bm A A G
It would have been easy to die for you

G D A Bm x2

G D A Bm
A million memories flood my brain
Drown my sorrow Kill my pain
Whets my thirst for you again

Just another night to get thru

Bm A
All my neighbors scream for quiet at my door
Shattered glass and torn up photos on the floor

Bm C#
Well, I couldn t stand to see your pictures anymore

CHORUS

Bb C
These cuts are deep but you plead innocent
Are you hell or are you heaven-sent
You re much to cold to know how much You meant
D C# Bm A
to me, yeah

Bb F C D x3

Eb F

G A

G A
A billion tear drops fallen from my eyes
But it s just a joke now and I m laughing at your lies
You make me hard as rock and now I realize

CHORUS x2
