Alisa Shamrow

C

My blue balloon

Am

Just flies ahead of me

C

I try to take it down

Bb

But it just moves away

C

My favorite room

Am

Is where I sit alone

C

Resolved to call my friends

Bb

But hope theyâ€™re out at play

C

Please

Bb

Iâ€™ve never been like this before

Dm

Never been one to implore

C

G

Never expected appease

C

Please

Bb

Youâ€™re falling this girl to her knees

Dm

Please

C

G

Please

Wake up at noon

Then try to sleep some more

While everyone has left for life hours before

I force a spoon

Of sugar in my tea

But every sip is starting to feel like a chore

Please

Iâ€™ve never been like this before

Never been one to implore

Never expected appease

Please

Youâ€™re falling this girl to her knees

Please

Please

Am

Your photoâ€™s still crooked up in that old frame

Dm

I pass by the store where they mention your name

Bb

Dm

G

I still live in our town, in our house but nothingâ€™s the same

Please

Iâ€™ve never been like this before

Never been one to implore

Never expected appease

Please

Youâ€™re falling this girl to her knees

Please
