

On The Outside Looking In Alison Krauss & Union Station

Hey, a great song I discovered this week...

start on Am

Am
You ve closed a door in front of me
Dm
I wait patiently outside
C F
And as the minutes tick away
E Am
I feel my anger rise

And who s the object of my rage?
Dm
And who s not being fair?
C F
Is it you for your indifference?
E Am
Or me for just standing there?

F
Cause in my mind the room beyond
C E
is bathed in golden light
F C
Well I dream about you through the day
E Am
and I toss and turn at night

(chords the same as first verse)

Sometimes it s hard to understand
When they say that pride s a sin
Should I go or should I stay
on the outside looking in?

Well I didn t make the grade today and I m not the only one But my heart won t stop hurting my feeling all alone

And maybe we ll trade places in some not so distant year I ll hear your voice a-calling out and I d cover up my ears

Cause in my mind the room beyond
is bathed in golden light
well I dream about you through the day
and I toss and turn at night

Well sometimes it s hard to understand
when they say that pride s a sin
An should I go or should I stay on the outside looking in?

well I could brag on the things I ve done or the places I have been But I ve never found a cure for on the outside looking in

Sometimes it s hard to understand
when they say that pride s a sin
Should I go or should I stay
on the outside looking in?
