On The Outside Looking In Alison Krauss & Union Station

Hey, a great song I discovered this week...

start on Am

Am

You ve closed a door in front of me

Dm

I wait patiently outside

C

F

And as the minutes tick away

Ε

Δm

I feel my anger rise

Am

And who s the object of my rage?

Dm

And who s not being fair?

C

F

Is it you for your indifference?

Е

Δm

Or me for just standing there?

F

Cause in my mind the room beyond

E

is bathed in golden light

Well I dream about you through the day

Е

Αm

and I toss and turn at night

(chords the same as first verse)

Sometimes it s hard to understand When they say that pride s a sin Should I go or should I stay on the outside looking in?

Well I didn t make the grade today and I m not the only one But my heart won t stop hurting my feeling all alone

And maybe we ll trade places

in some not so distant year
I ll hear your voice a-calling out and I d cover up my ears

Cause in my mind the room beyond is bathed in golden light well I dream about you through the day and I toss and turn at night

Well sometimes it s hard to understand when they say that pride s a sin

An should I go or should I stay on the outside looking in?

well I could brag on the things I ve done or the places I have been
But I ve never found a cure for on the outside looking in
