Oblivion

Written by Alistair Griffin

G D Em7 Cadd9
Smiles at me softly I know her for sure
G D Em7 Cadd9
That smile on her face I ve seen somewhere else before
G D Em7 Cadd9
I know it must be wrong cos it surely can t be right
G D Cadd9
Gonna go out and I m gonna get lost tonight

Here I go again
G D Em7 Cadd9 G
She s outer space and in my mind
D Em7 Cadd9 G
Nothing between us now but the chemistry is suicide
D Em7 Cadd9 Em7 D Cadd9
And from this place we both can run and dance into oblivion

Here I go again

G D Em7 Cadd9
Ask her, her name and she says Miss Understood
G D Em7 Cadd9
But I prefer crazy now buy me a Bud
G D Em7 Cadd9
Though we know it must be wrong cos it surely can t be right
G D Cadd9
Gonna go out and we re gonna get lost tonight

Here I go again
She s outer space and in my mind
Nothing between us now but the chemistry is suicide
And from this place we both can run and dance into oblivion

G D Em7 Cadd9
Wide boy beaten up car looking for a life but he never gets far
G D Em7 Cadd9
Schools out pick up a girl never get home gonna see the world
G D Em7 Cadd9
Wide boy beaten up car looking for a life but he never gets far
G D Em7 Cadd9
Schools out pick up a girl never get home gonna see the world

Morning has broken it s seven am leave by her window I ve done it
Again though I know it must be wrong cos it surely can t be right
Gonna go out and I m gonna get lost tonight

She s outer space and in my mind
Nothing between us now but the chemistry is suicide
And from this place we both can run and dance into oblivion
And dance into oblivion
And dance into oblivion
