Verse 1

Stale as a 2 day half full beer
Cigarette boats float around in here
A field in my gut lacking sunshine
Put down like a teenagers first drink
I cough up compliments I Think
You re better off walking away while you still can

She was passing through to climb a hill
As you slipped and slid on my gut spill
My better half was praying for you to fall

Verse 2

Rotten like a 3 week half full glass
Of breast milk drunken off my ass

I would give anything to erase the past nine years of my life
Put down like a prostitute in court
All liberty soon to abort
Like my sanity, like thoughts of you.

She was passing through to climb a hill
As you slipped and slid on my gut spill
My better half was praying for you to fall

Chorus

Praying for you to fall
So pitiful
Praying for you to fall
I m fuckin pitiful

Chorus

Praying for you to fall
So pitiful
Praying for you to fall
So fuckin pitiful
