VERSE 1:

E B C#m A

I remember a rooftop making out
downstairs the coppers screamed so loud
I waited so long for that night
Then I just turned away

B C#m A

And I know every street on the West Side

E B A

But I was lost, unfound, not right
Maybe there s something wrong inside

VERSE:

E B C#m A

Now I ve got no where to go, my hands is all that I ve got
I m so sorry for so many things, that I haven t said yet

B C#m A

This is the waiting room I spend my whole life in

E B A

They gave me a thousand hands so I could count my sins
If I m lucky, maybe I ll finish before the roof caves in

INTERLUDE:

E B A

I lost my life on the first try
You found it miles down the line
A swollen face with three first names
You kiss the taste back in my tongue
You suck the smoke out of my lungs
And then we slept for days and days, and days

E B A

When we woke up, my heart had choked up
Had to say I love you way too soon
But right there on your couch you loved me too
Right there on your couch you loved me too

BRIDGE:

E B x3

C#m A

VERSE:

E B C#m A

Nineteen and sober once or twice
I caught some junky s bad advice
Up to my eyes in others problems
Couldn t see I d never solve them

B C#m A

Am I only skin and bone and piss and pills unknown

E B A

I took my lousy shot at public recognition
Could never pull the trigger if I wasn t shaking
