REPEAT

We have been warned which way this storm is gonna blow But where the rip tide takes us to we ll never know now you re screaming out for Jesus send for anyone, please save us Before we get lost in the blink of an eye

This carrion has been forgotten left for dead in the sun rotting, the answers lie here in this tragedy, it ends with you and me, we re dragged from the light,
into the night...

So sing to me your darkest secrets Time to leave behind your regrets
Before we get lost in the blink of an eye

left for dead in the sun rotting, the answer lies here in the mystery, it starts with you and me when we re dragged from the light into the night...

Into the night...
