Verse 1
Ebm
 If I was man enough to break your wrist
C#
 Send you home to rewrite all who made your list
Ebm
 Of ones who love and pray and help through time
C#
 Clock on the wall that won t relieve your right to life
F#
 We re all the facts and voted yes to keep
Ebm
 Burn hot the records those words hold no weight to me
F#
 My child I m dying I have never told
Ebm
 The world of fucked up love between two souls like ours
Bbm
Verse 2
Ebm
 I m failing hard to stop a trying man
C#
 Until his purpose becomes done in God s whole plan
Ebm
 I claim my debt to be the arm holding your weight
C#
 What should I buy will not find the strength to wait
F#
 And pull my aching body off the ledge
Ebm
 One last touch before a shell becomes a bed
F#
 For herb to grow and life to feed itself
Ebm
 Don t be sad, this is my point

Chorus 1
Bbm   Ebm
 Don t dig a foxhole
Bbm   G#

```
           I ll build a new home
Bbm                      Ebm
  That would lie on pavement
Bbm              G#
  Solid foundation
F#                      C#
  For a family you ll grow
F#                      C#
  Two daughters you ll show
F#                        C#
  How a dark place found light
F#                         Ebm
  How a heart might grow bright

Verse 3 (same as first two)
If I was man enough to break your wrist
I d send you back to rethink all who made your list
Of ones to care and call and fix from love
Mirror on the wall that won t release your right to trust
We re all the packs of souls we tried to save
Burn hot the bodies these souls have no hold on me
My love I m crying I have never sold
The world the truth about this place
Just please don t you

Chorus 2 (same as first)
Don t dig a foxhole
I ll build a new home
That would lie on pavement
Solid foundation

For a new way of life
For a point to survive

Don t dig a foxhole
I ll build a new home
That would lie on pavement
Solid foundation

For a family you ll grow
Two daughters you ll show
How a dark place found light
How a heart might grow bright

Bridge
C#                                 F#                 Ebm
  While you re sleepless dream in memories of a time you felt alive
C#                               F#          Ebm
  The warmth of life is precious to your eyes
C#                              F#          Ebm
  Find a spot you plan to marry and bury it in deep dark earth
C#                  F#          Ebm
  Return to it, come back here to me
```

Chorus 3 (same as other two)
Don t dig a foxhole
I ll build a new home
That would lie on pavement
Solid foundation

For a family you ll grow
Two daughters you ll show
How a dark place found light
How a heart might grow bright

Don t dig a foxhole
I ll build a new home
That would lie on pavement
Solid foundation

For a new way of life
For a point to survive

Don t dig a foxhole
I ll build a new home
Would lie on pavement
Solid foundation

For a family you ll grow
Two daughters you ll show
How a dark place found light
And a heart might grow bright
