Verse 1

C#m

If I was man enough to break your wrist

B

Send you home to rewrite all who made your list

C#m

Of ones who love and pray and help through time

Clock on the wall that won t relieve your right to life

E

We re all the facts and voted yes to keep

C#m

Burn hot the records those words hold no weight to me

My child I m dying I have never told

C#m

The world of fucked up love between two souls like ours

G#m

Verse 2

C#m

I m failing hard to stop a trying man

Until his purpose becomes done in God s whole plan

C#m

I claim my debt to be the arm holding your weight

What should I buy will not find the strength to wait

And pull my aching body off the ledge

C#m

One last touch before a shell becomes a bed

For herb to grow and life to feed itself

C#m

Don t be sad, this is my point

Chorus 1

G#m

C#m

Don t dig a foxhole

G#m

F#

Chorus 3 (same as other two)
Don t dig a foxhole
I ll build a new home
That would lie on pavement
Solid foundation

For a family you ll grow
Two daughters you ll show
How a dark place found light
How a heart might grow bright

Don t dig a foxhole
I ll build a new home
That would lie on pavement
Solid foundation

For a new way of life
For a point to survive

Don t dig a foxhole
I ll build a new home
Would lie on pavement
Solid foundation

For a family you ll grow
Two daughters you ll show
How a dark place found light
And a heart might grow bright
