intro- G D Am

        G D C/G

G              D                    Am
  Bury my feet, untie my hands
G            D                C/G
  Ground me, love me where I am
G           D              C    C/B   Am
  Understand I am but a Southern man
G                  D                  C/G
  so ground me, fuck me where I am

G D Am
G D C/G

G              D                    Am
  Broken English, break my lips
G            D              C/G
  know me, show me where I sit G            D                   C/G   C/B   Am
  Can you see through and my balled up fists
G            D                C/G
  so know me, show me where I sit

C                G      D      G      C                      G
  All the kids cry as run the room to a stage where you wake up
                 C                 G
  they say that you don t give a fuck
         C                  D
  hey now why did you wake me up
C                G           D      G
  and Everyone is burning with a dirty head
        C                   G
  as the half life is half used up
         C                  G
  hey now kids you re out of luck
              C                  D
  why don t you try not to try to much

Am                      C/G
  And I remember being young enough to ask G                     D
```

```
   am I good enough, am i gonna burn
Am                                  C/G
  I watched my skin fall off, and nights and dreams that seem to just G                      D     C D
  re-begin again and again

G D Am
G D C/G

G         D                Am
  Bury my feet, untie my hands
G         D                C/G
  Ground me, love me where I am
G         D              C   C/B   Am
  Understand I am but a Southern man
G           D                C/G
  Ground me, fuck me where I am

C/G             G       D      G       C              G
  All the kids cry as run the room to a stage where you wake up
              C                 G
  they say that you don t give a fuck
        C                 D
  hey now why did you wake me up
C             G             D     G
  and Everyone is burning with a dirty head
      C               G
  as the half life is half used up
      C               G
  hey now kids you re out of luck
              C         D      G
  so why don t you try not to try to much
