

Cinderblock Garden

All Time Low

Intro: G G C C

Em D G C

Em G C G
Wait, I think we're on to something we can't run from

Em G C G
Fate, but we can let it take us down

Em G C G
Down this road, where all our colors run together

Em G
Let's take the worst and make it better

C G
Let's take this mess and make a home

Am

I know it gets hard for you to stay,

C*

But do you really want to throw it all away?

(I'm thinking)

G C
That we could make forever after all

Em D
Finding gold in our darkest moments

G C
Watching the roads turning into white roses, roses

G C
We don't ever have to leave these walls

Em D
I'll be the boy with a silver lining

G C
You'll be the girl with a cinderblock garden

G G C C

Em D G C

Em G C G
Tonight, take all the ghosts and all those skeletons you

Em G C G
Hide, and bury them deep beneath the ground

Em G C G
Let them miss, because you were the man to bare that burden

Em G
Look at the roses in your garden

C G
You can breathe now and forget

Am

I get it gets hard for you to stay

C*

But we don't really need to throw it all away

(I'm thinking)

G

C

That we could make forever after all

Em

D

Finding gold in our darkest moments

G

C

Watching the roads turning into white roses, roses

G

C

We don't ever have to leave these walls

Em

D

I'll be the boy with a silver lining

G

C

You'll be the girl with a cinderblock garden

G G C C

Em D G C

Em

C

Just hold for out for tomorrow

G

Our dreams will follow,

D

Follow us back to where

Em

C

Where nothing was broken

G

The future was open

D

Let's go back again

G

C*

That we could make forever after all

Em

D

Finding gold in our darkest moments

G

C

Watching the roads turning into white roses, roses

G

C

We don't ever have to leave these walls

Em

D

I'll be the boy with a silver lining

G

C

You'll be the girl with a cinderblock garden

G G C C

Em D G C

G G C C

Em D G C