Ponte:

make all of my decisions for me I ve never taken the fall for the scene We ll keep a secret if you can keep me guessin the taste of your lips has me sure to be met like make all of my decisions for me i ve never taken the fall for the scene we can keep a secret if you can keep me guessin

I can keep a secret if you can keep me guessin the flavor of your lips is enough to keep me pressin for more than just a moment of truth between the lives when we pull ourselves away from the lives we leave back I can keep a secret if you can keep me guessin the flavor of your lips is enough to keep me he----re
