Capo on 2

C#m B C#m
Rush of the past
B C#m E F#
I quietly crash and the tables turn
C#m B C#m B C#m
You re beautiful strange, defiantly brash
E F#
Be careful now
E F#
Kid you re a cut above
E F# Eb
Always just a cut above the rest

A E
If there s something left to be learned
B
Then my time is running
C#m (B) A
Why should I waste it all wasted on you?
A E B
I shouldn t be trusted to live and let go
A E
When the last of my cities have burned
Then what s left in nothing
C#m (B) A
Why did i waste it all wasted on you?
A E B
I couldn t be trusted to live and let go

Fill in the blanks, pencil on paper
Disposable
Throw away lines
Intentional but unbelievable

Kid you re a cut above
Always just a cut above the rest

If there s something left to be learned
Then my time is running
Why should I waste it all wasted on you?

I shouldn't be trusted to live and let go
When the last of my cities have burned
Then what's left in nothing
Why did I waste it all wasted on you?
I couldn't be trusted to live and let go

C#m B C#m

Shaken and tried

C#m B C#m E F#

Fade and resign as the tables turn

C#m B C#m B C#m E F#

Let s slip away the renegade life you ve been dreaming of

Kid you re a cut above

Always just a cut above the rest

If there s something left to be learned

Then my time is running

Why should I waste it all wasted on you?

I shouldn't be trusted to live and let go

When the last of my cities have burned

Then what's left is nothing

Why did i waste it all wasted on you?

I couldn't be trusted to live and let go
