Intro: Am F G Em Dm A# Am

Fells like yesterday now
I can see it all so clear
You were closer whispering
Itâ€™s you and me that count right now
I thought that the voice I was hearing
Was so completely sincere

Years have passed since that day
My mourning has come to an end
I know you re still out there
Regretting the choices that you made
I wonâ€™t follow you this time
I ll give you the pain that was mine

Wonâ€™t fall again
I won t be fooled
This time my heart is strong
You are standing right before
The master of sorrow

Wonâ€™t feel again
Suffer no more
This time my heart is cold
You are standing right before
The master of sorrow
