

Last To Speak

Allen Stone

Am

I know exactly where we re headed,

Adim/Eb

Science won t give God any credit,

Dm

And the church says as long the prophet said it,

C.

It s good enough for the church to be fed it,

Am

There s four thousand different interpretations,

Adim/Eb

We disagree from Genesis to Revelations

Dm

We need to get to the core of the situation,

C.

And stop bitchin bout same-sex relations,

And the chapel says it s non-profit, yeah,

Cept if the prophet wants a Benz, he goes and cops it,

And growing up wealth was never topic, no,

My daddy never had bread up in his pocket, oh,

And my tax dollars only teach abstinence,

Cept half the girls I grew up with got pregnant,

Instead of scholarships, they got carriages,

Instead of chasing their dreams, they re chasing marriages,

And Martin Luther King (Jr.) had a vision,

So this must be a blind generation,

And it seems that we ve become a nation,

Manipulated by the congregation,

And we will never find racial unity,

Unless we find equal opportunity,

Well, I will never rest for immunity,

Cause I was born and raised in a Caucasian community,

The less-fortunate are run,

By their desires for these poisons,

Your meth, crack and heroin,

They are the kings of the underprivileged kingdom,

And there s a phantom epidemic in our nation,

And this phantom epidemic s education,

Entertainment and recreation--they take priority over shaping generations,

And what about the media?

Quit believing every single thing they re feeding ya,

The view of our political agendas,

Is swayed by political vendetta,

And I am just a son of illegitimates,
And I m just another bitch with an instrument,
And whoring out my personal opinions,
And whoring out my personal convictions,
And, yes, I believe that the church is in crisis,
And, yes, I believe everybody s got their vices,
But the crisis that provoked me to write this,
Is I know the good I should do, but I always do the opposite,
So I should be the last to speak, yeah,
I should be the last to speak,
I should be the last to speak,
I should be the last to,
I should be the last to,
Well, I should be the last to speak,
I should be the last to speak,
Well, I should be the last to speak,
I should be the last to,
I should be the last to speak.
