[Intro]: G...

[Verse 1]

```
G   D           Em   C           G   D           Am   C
My, words in your mouth, finishing my phrase, it s no surprise...
      G   D           Em   C           G   D           Am
...that, over these last four thousand days, you have become
      Am           C           D
the one who can read my eyes...
```

[Chorus]

      G   D           G   Am   D
Darling you see, the fear in me,
      G   D   C           C
and how I d finally be, if I were willing to let it go...
```

G....

[Verse]

G   D           Em   C           G   D           Am   C
My, hand in your hand, underneath the table, keeps me composed...
G           D           Em           C           G   D           Am
Somehow you understand that I am more able than I know...
Am           C           D
Brave enough to let it go...
```

[Chorus]

      G   D           G   Am   D
Darling you see, the fear in me,
      G   D   C           C
and how I ll finally be, when I am willing to let it go...
```

G...

[Bridge]

```
C           G           D           C           G           D

I don't want to hold on tight to the, ways that bring the death of me;
C G D C D
Do the same thing over and over again, expecting something different...
D
You untether me...

[Chorus]

Am G Am G D
Darling I see, the fear in me,
Am G D C D
and now I'm finally, willing to let it go...
C G Am G D
Darling I see, the fear in me,
Am G D C G
and now I'm finally, willing to let it go...
G G
Ba da da, ba da dum...
