Verse 1:

G D

1871 was the year

G C D

underneath an October sky

G

When a windy city man had

C

set out with a plan to set

G D G

a fire but nobody knows why

G

So Pegleg headed out

D

back with a match and a

G C D

bucket of kerosene

G

Little did he know that the

C

wind would blow through

G D G

the streets with anarchy

Refrain:

C

G

Pegleg didn't have an alibi

C G

He didn't have a story to tell

C

But he bought his one way

G D

ticket straight to hell

Chorus 1:

G

Cuz he burned the whole damn city

D

yeah Watched it all go down

Em

Yeah he burned all of

C D

Chicago to the ground

G

yeah he burned that beautiful city

D

He torched that beautiful town

Em

Yeah he burned all of

C D G C G

Chicago to the ground

Verse 2:

G

The Flames spread

D

fast every night

While they passed through

G

the alleys and the

C D

dead end streets

G

From suburban doors to

C

the lakefront shore

G D G

demolishing everything

G

And pegleg never got

D

blamed for the mess made

G C D

Said he never broke the law

G

But all that remained was

C

the charred black stains

G D G

Proving every things his fault

(Repeat Refrain)

(Repeat Chorus 1)

Bridge:

D

Of all the books

C G C G

printed on his terrain

D

None raised the flag

C G C G

on one mans legacy

Em

Now everybody

C

knows the truth

Em

of the stories

C

being exposed

Em

So Pegleg s going

C D

down in infamy

Chorus 2:

G

Cuz he burned the whole damn city

D

yeah Watched it all go down

Em

Yeah he burned all of

C D

Chicago to the ground

G

yeah he burned that beautiful city

D

He torched that beautiful town

Em

Yeah he burned all of

C D G C G

Chicago to the ground

C

Yeah he burned all of

D G C G

Chicago to the ground

C

Yeah he burned all of

D G C G(hold)

Chicago to the ground
