

Burn It Down
Alter Bridge

If you re feeling ambitious and Kennedy-like, Capo 2. Otherwise, it doesn t really matter where ya play it :)

Verse 1:

A
Drank so much last night
G
I think that I drowned
E
But now my cup is empty
A G
No one has seen my will around
E
Now my heart is aching
A G
Sometimes I fall asleep for days
E
But my bed is empty
A G
I know I am too set in my ways
E
Tell all I m ok

Chorus:

A
So burn it down
F C
Discover the dusk of your day
G
Has reached its dawn
A
So burn it down
F C G
Remember to find a new way to carry on

A G E E

Verse 2:

A
Flew so high last night
G E
I think that I fell to the ground so heavy
A G

Woke up to find this living hell

E

It used to be so easy

A

G

Hard to tell my nights now from my days

E

The curtains hide my feelings

A

G

Don't feel I have any right to pray

E

Will find me someday, someday

Chorus:

A

So burn it down

F

C

Discover the dusk of your day

G

Has reached its dawn

A

So burn it down

F

C

G

Remember to find a new way to carry on

A

So burn it down

F

C

Discover the dusk of your day

G

Has reached its dawn

A

So burn it down

F

C

G

Remember to find a new way to carry on

Bridge:

Whatever takes us away

Will be the same to drive us on

Whatever takes us away

Will be the same to drive us on

Remember to find a new way

A way to see it all

We'll find it slipping away

And soon it will be gone

Remember to find a new day

Remember to carry on

Chorus:

A

So burn it down

F

C

Discover the dusk of your day

G

Has reached its dawn

A

So burn it down

F

C

G

Remember to find a new way to carry on

A

So burn it down

F

C

Discover the dusk of your day

G

Has reached its dawn

A

So burn it down

F
