DO EVERYTHING I TAUGHT YOU - ALTERKICKS

just a few things to mention! firstly these are a great new band from the land of liverpool who have recently released there first single (this tab!). they only released 1000 or so copies though so will not be too familiar (yet!). secondly, anyone who has the song will know that there is a lot of lead going on during the solo and outro, which i havn t tabbed. i ve just put the chords in for ryhthm guitar, which i have used for the whole song, therefore making it more of an acoustic version. keep an eye out for the alterkicks ladies and gentlemen and once you know them, enjoy this cracking but not too complicated debut!!
