

Letting Go
Alyssa Reid

This is my first tab so don t judge too harshly!
Played without a capo. Not entirely sure what this chord is, its an Em with the G string
(the fourth string from the top) played on the same fret. (I m just gonna call it an EmX)
Looks like this:

```
e-----|
b-----|
g----2----|
d----2----|
a----2----|
E-----|
```

G Bm A EmX D

G
I can tell that he wants you
Bm
I can see in his eyes
A
But he s trying play his games on you
EmX
And you don t see through his lies
G
But I know he really needs you
Bm
And I know you can tell
A
Cause he s with his boys right now
Acting all big
EmX
So you know he s putting you through hell
G
So tell him to go,
D
If he s too good for you
G
Let him know,
D
If he thinks he s too cool
G Move on,
A
Cause it won t be long
EmX
Til his game is done

D (strum once)

The crowd is gone

G

I know you're thinking it's a quarter to ten,

Em

And you wonder why you did it again

A

Remember what you're fighting for,

EmX

As you're walking out that door

G

It took a minute but I'm starting to doubt,

Em

That you're ever gonna figure it out

A

I won't be the last to know

EmX

You took a chance,

D (strum once)

Now I'm letting go.
