

Jukebox

Amanda Anne Platt & The Honeycutters

[Intro]

D Bm G A

[Verse]

D I donâ€™t have to be, the only one you dream About, Bm
the one that you canâ€™t live withou, I just wanna make you smile. G A
D So donâ€™t go calling me, the angel on your doorstep, Bm
Cause I fell just like all the rest, I was too broke down to fly... G A

[Chorus]

D But Iâ€™ve got a quarter for the Jukebox.
Bm Honey Iâ€™m going dancin, you coming or not?
D Take a chance on me Daddy, this may be all we got. A
D And the night may be black & the road may be long
Bm your voice may crack, & it all sounds wrong,
G D A itâ€™s only a song, so for heavenâ€™s sake wonâ€™t you sing along?

[Verse]

D Now taste those tears, it seems your luck has all been shot, Bm
G Youâ€™ve got nothing left to promise God,
A Heâ€™s tired of listening anyhow...
D But Iâ€™m still here, & Iâ€™ve been waiting my whole life, Bm
G for someone just to see me twice,
A the way youâ€™re looking at me now...

[Chorus]

D But Iâ€™ve got a quarter for the Jukebox.
Bm Honey Iâ€™m going dancin, you coming or not?
D A

Take a chance on me Daddy, this may be all we got.

D

And the night may be black & the road may be long

Bm

your voice may crack, & it all sounds wrong,

G

D

A

it's only a song, so for heaven's sake won't you sing along?

[Bridge]

G D D
No use asking why? Some birds just ain't built to fly.

G

Bm

But sooner or later, we all have to try...

[Chorus] (one time through sung, one instrumental)

D

But I've got a quarter for the Jukebox.

Bm

Honey I'm going dancin, you coming or not?

D

A

Take a chance on me Daddy, this may be all we got.

D

And the night may be black & the road may be long

Bm

your voice may crack, & it all sounds wrong,

G

D

A

it's only a song, so for heaven's sake won't you sing along?