Intro: D   A   D   Bm   A   E   x2

A
I don t know what I was thinking
Bm   E
 Til I was thinking of you
                                    Bm
I don t remember a thing before I opened my eyes
      F#m   E
And you came into view
I don t know what I was doing
Bm   E
When there was nothing to do

Must ve been waiting for someone, baby
Bm   F#m   E
Now I can see - I was waiting for you

    D   E
I d give up my sight just to see you
    A   D
I d beg, I would borrow and steal
    Bm   A
I d cut off my hands just to touch you
    E
And tear out my heart so you d know how I feel
        D   E
There s nowhere that I wouldn t follow
        A   D
There s nothing that I wouldn t do

```
        Bm            A                    E
 Cause I          wouldn t wanna be me
      A          Bm      E     Bm     F#m      E
If I didn t have you

Driving myself to distraction
Bm                     E
Until you got in my way
                                   Bm
I was just whistling Dixie  til you struck up the band
         F#m          E
And they started to play
A
I don t know how I was living
Bm                      E
Until you came in my life

I always knew there was something wrong
      Bm
Then you came along
       F#m           E
Baby, you made it right

     D                          E
I d give up my sight just to see you
     A                       D
I d beg, I would borrow and steal
     Bm                       A
I d cut off my hands just to touch you
     E
And tear out my heart so you d know how I feel
        D                        E
There s nowhere that I wouldn t follow
        A                      D
There s nothing that I wouldn t do
        Bm        A                 E
 Cause I          wouldn t wanna be me
      A          Bm      E     Bm     F#m      E
If I didn t have you

Solo:  E    A    D    Bm    A    D    E    A    D    Bm     A

I was alone in the silence
Bm                      E
 Til I was hearing your voice
```

```
                                                    Bm
I couldn t see my way clear until you parted the clouds
        F#m           E
And you gave me a choice
I couldn t pick up the pieces
Bm                    E
 Til I was falling apart

I didn t know I was bleeding
          Bm                              F#m           E
 Til your love fixed this hole, baby, here in my heart

    D                           E
I d give up my sight just to see you
    A                         D
I d beg, I would borrow and steal
    Bm                        A
I d cut off my hands just to touch you
      E
And tear out my heart so you d know how I feel
    D                             E
There s nowhere that I wouldn t follow
        A                         D
There s no place that I d rather be
      Bm                          A
This life without you would be hollow
        E
This love is a gift, and you gave it to me
D                         E
All that I am, you have made me
    A                         D
And baby, I know that it s true
    Bm                        A
I d give it all up in a heartbeat
Just to spend every moment with you
        D                           E
There s no place that I wouldn t follow
        A                         D
There s nothing that I wouldn t do
      Bm         A               E
 Cause I        wouldn t wanna be me
                    D         E      A       D
If I didn t have you
                    Bm         A     E
If I didn t have you
            D       E     A     D     Bm       A       E
If I didn t have                      you
```
