

Blake Says

Amanda Palmer

E B C#5 A
Blake says no one ever really loved him
E B C#5 A
They just faked it to get money from the government
E B C#5 A
And Blake thinks angels grow when you plant angel dust
E B C#5 A
He shakes his head and blinks his pretty eyes, but trust me
C#m A
He s no valentine
C#m A
Though he said he would be mine
C#m B F#m A
His heart is in Alaska all the time

C#/E B C#5 A
Blake stays underwater for the most part
E B C#5 A
He collects loose change for all tomorrow s parties
E B C#5 A
And when Blake dates girls with tattoos of the pyramids
E B C#5 A
He breaks their hearts by saying it s not permanent

C#m A
But in his velvet mind
C#m A
He believes with all his might
C#m B F#m
We ll all go to Alaska when we die

E B C#5 A
Blake makes friends but only for a minute
E B C#5 A
He prefers the things he orders from the internet
E B C#5 A
And Blake s been having trouble with his head again
E B C#5 A
He takes his pills but never takes his medicine

C#m A
He tells me that he s fine

C#m

A

And the sad thing is he s right

C#m

B

A

And when it s two o clock it feels like nine.

E

If it s okay he ll call right back and talk to the machine

B

C#5

A

Blake says it looks like acid rain today

B

C#5

A

He takes the fish inside, he s very kind that way

C#m

A

But just like Caroline

C#m

A

He doesn t seem to mind

C#m

B

A

The globe is getting warmer all the time

C#m

A

It s still cold in Alaska

C#m

A

It s still cold in Alaska
