HAVE TO DRIVE - Amanda Palmer

Tabbed by: me

[Intro]

A E F#m D* x4

A E F#m D*

I have to drive

A E F#m D*

I have my reasons, dear

A E F#m D*

Itâ€™s cold outside

A E F#m D*

I hate the seasons here

A E F#m

I suffer mornings most of all

D* A

I feel so powerless and small

E F#m

By ten oâ€™clock Iâ€™m back in bed

D* A E F#m D*

Fighting the jury in my head

A E F#m D*

You learn to drive

A E F#m D*

Itâ€™s only natural, dear

A E F#m D*

You drive all night

A E F#m D*

We havenâ€™t slept in years

A E F#m

We suffer mornings most of all

D* A

We saw you lying in the road

E F#m

We tried to dig a decent grave

D*

But itâ€™s still no way to behave

A E F#m

It is a delicate position

D

Spin the bottle

G

Pick the victim

C

Catch a tiger

F#m

Switch directions

G

If he hollers

A

Break his ankles

Bm

To protect him

D A

Weâ€™ll have to drive

Bm G

Theyâ€™re getting closer

Just get inside

Bm G

Itâ€™s almost over

D A Bm

We will save your brothers

G D A

We will save your cousins

Bm G D A

We will drive them far away

Bm G

From streets and lights

D A Bm G

From all signs of bad mankind

D A Bm G x2

D A Bm

We suffer mornings most of all

G D

Wake up all bleary eyed and sore

A Bm G

Forgetting everything we saw

(Iâ€™ll meet you in an hour

at the car)

D* = I usually play a D for the first half of these measures and a Dmaj7 for the second which makes a nice transition to the A (and sounds closer to what Amanda does on the piano).
