Vegemite The Black Death Amanda Palmer

I did this by ear, and there are a couple of spots I think are just a little off, but otherwise it should be good. Intro: D(7) Verse: C You tell me that you love me when i m lying by your side G (D/F#) Em you tell me that i am the only one who understands your fragile mind that i m blind to any evil you could do and that i love you like any other girl could ever do G you love the things that i love you love art and you love books and you love love as much as i do and you lovee my dirty looks (D/F#) Em and you love me right now so how Single notes: C# C D can you love Chords: G vegemite? it tastes like sadness D it tastes like batteries it tastes like asses D/F# Cmi cannot hold a man so close who spreads this cancer on his toast

it is the vegemite my darling, or its me

G

D

G

you have to make the fucking choice i cannot sit with you at breakfast the very smell of it obliterates my senses Am and if that weren t bad enough you also eat the shit for lunch which means we can t spend any time together what kind of relationship is that G the choice is yours, my heart is in your hands please wash your hands D/F# Em you just had vegemite for lunch you selfish bastard Throughout this bit is just Am and D and Am again it s all about you isn t it, it s just take, take, take, take what about me? what about my feelings? I m Sorry Throughout the story chords are: G C D G Em Am D (same as verse) G I love you and no matter what you eat i ll always love you completely D/F# i might just always leave the room at meal times or refuse to touch or kiss you for a week if you insist on putting that foul death paste in your mouth G you re in my heart but put yourself inside my shoes i have to know, it shouldn t be that hard to choose i know it s tearing you apart but it s the way it has to be it is the vegemite my darling, Ab dim (or E7) it is the vegemite my darling put down the vegemite fucker or ill leave.

Cm G