Thank You
Amber Run

```
             F#m                       D      A
Maybe if I opened my arms wide enough I d take flight
        F#m                      D     A
Oh, and close my eyes for long enough I d see,
              F#m                    D     A
And maybe if I wait the wind will blow me forwards,
        F#m                      D     A
Oh, and teach these little lungs how to breathe
```

D A F#m A x2

```
     F#m                D        A
And maybe if I build myself a barrier,
      F#m                   D        A
It d force someone to try and tear it down
            F#m                   D          A
And maybe if I dream enough the impossible would happen
        F#m               D           A
Oh, and live so long the world stops spinning round
```

```
            D           A F#m A
Just know I m happy as I am,
     D           A F#m A
I m happy as I am,
                D A F#m A
And it s thanks to you
                D A F#m A
And it s thanks to you
```

```
     F#m      D           A
Well maybe I pull myself down,
         F#m        D              A
I ve been praying for deals I d never sell,
       F#m                         D          A
I ve been following your light, well I had never saw, no,
        F#m          D                   A A    F#m
You gotta pick me up and tell me where I ve been going wrong
       F#m          D                   A A    F#m
Well, pick me up and tell me where I ve been going wrong
```

```
                D              A
And you said we re all just skin and bones,
             F#m
Just skin and bones,
            A
Just skin and bones,
```

```
                   D
Were scattered in the wind,
          A                              F#m A
We ll end up where we re supposed to be

                   D
And it s thanks to you
          A                      F#m
That I am here and you re here too
          A                   D A F#m A
The entire world seems brand new
                   D A F#m A
And it s thanks to you

D A F#m A

                   D A F#m A
And it s thanks to you
                   D A F#m A
Oh, it s thanks to you
