

Im Born To Run American Authors

Am C
I m born to run down rocky cliffs
Em F
Give me grace, bury my sins
Am C
Shattered glass and black holes
Em F
Can t hold me back from where I need to go
Am C
Yellow hills and valleys deep
Em F
I watch them move under my feet
Am C
Stranger things have come and gone
Em F
To see the world and take the throne

N.C.
Don t hold back
Oh, I won t hold back

I m gonna live my life like I m gonna die young
 Like it s never enough, like I m born to run
 I m gonna spend my time like tomorrow won t come
 Do whatever I want like I m born to run
 I wanna see Paris, I wanna see Tokyo
 I wanna be careless even if I break my bones
 I m gonna live my life like I m gonna die young
 Like it s never enough, like I m born to run
 A winding road where strangers meet
 To feel the love of a warm drink
 My body moves, it s speaking loud
 Don t have to say what I m thinking now

N.C.

Don t hold back
Oh, I won t hold back
