

Luck
American Authors

Intro - C

C
How can we make amends when we said all we said?
F C
I call and you don't pick up
C
How can I say instead that I hope it's for the best?
F C
I won't, and I won't give up

C
I'm sorry, Mother
F
I know I let you down
C
I'm sorry for how
F
I up and left this town

C
How can we push aside all the bad and make it right
F C
Now you got me all choked up

Am
I'm sorry, brother
F
I know I let you down
Am
I'm sorry for how
F
I up and left this town
C G F Am
Please just listen cause I don't ask for much
G
I am my own man
F C
I make my own luck

C|- F - C - C

C
How can we both pick sides when we know nothing's right?
F C
Open up the door that's shut
C

How can I have my pride and drink away my soul tonight?

F C
Sorrow s filling up my cup

Am
I m sorry, Father

F
I know I let you down

Am
I m sorry for how

F
I up and left this town
C G F Am
Please just listen cause I don t ask for much

G
I am my own man
F F build up...
I make my own luck

N.C. C
Well some birds aren t meant to be caged

Am
And I just can t see the light of day

C
Please forgive me

C
I can t remember

C
Please forgive me

C
no one is calling

Am
Please forgive me

C
I can t believe it

F
No...

C
Gonna pick myself up, so I don t let this ever grow

F
Even if I mess up, I won t let this ever go

Am
It s hard to stay

F
It s hard to stay

C
Cause some birds aren t meant to be caged

C
How can I set us free?

C

I m what you taught me to be

F C

Shouldn t that be enough?

C

It s time that we make amends

C

Let s forget the things we said

F C

You know we were all just talk

Am

I m sorry, Mother

F

I know I let you down

Am

I m sorry, Father

F

I didn t stick around

C G F G

Please just listen cause I don t ask for much

F

I am my own man

C

I make my own luck

C* G* F* Am*

Please just listen cause I don t ask for much

F*

Just like my old man,

build up...

I make my own luck

C

And some birds are meant to be caged

Am

And some just won t see the light of day

C

Please forgive me

C

I can t remember

C

Please forgive me

C

No one is coming

Am

Please forgive me

C

I can t believe it

F

No...

C

Gonna pick myself up, so I don t let this ever grow

F

Even if I mess up, I won't let this ever go

Am

It's hard to stay

F

It's hard to stay

C

Cause some birds aren't meant to be caged

C

G

F

G

Please just listen cause I don't ask for much

F

I am my own man

C

I make my own luck

C

G

F

Am

Please just listen cause I don't ask for much

F

I am my own man

C

I make my own luck