

Dont Wait For The Sun
American Hi-Fi

Tabbed By: Aaron Levesque

Okay, pretty easy here people. Only problem is you have to have a good stretch with your pinkie and index finger. I only tabbed out the intro rift, which is basically played thoroughout the chorus and during some other parts of the song.

p-pull off
t-tug on pull
b-bend

Intro/Chorus:

```
e|-----|
b|-----|
g|-7--10-7--5-10-5-----5-7---7-5-----7-----|
d|-----5-----5-----|
a|-----|
```

During the verse, the sound of Stacy scrapping his fingers on the string sis more evident than the actual sounds the chords make. But there is a lot of hammering.

This is the first one that I can figure out:
This hammer is right he says I ll be fine...

e|-----|
b|-----|
g|-5h7tp5-----3h7tp3bbbb-----|for the (bbbb), just slightly bend the string
d|-----5-----| up and down quickly/
a|-----|

The (t) tugs basically mean when pulling off the hammer, give the string a slight tug. It will give it a little accent that you can hear slightly in the song.

Sorry I couldn t figure out the rest of the song. I only took the time for this part. But the rest of the hammers are around the same area as the first one I tabbed. Okay, Well Peace Out!-Aaron email me at Zer0T* if there are any questions or comments.
