Amy Fairchild

Capo 1

```
Cadd9    G      Cadd9     G        Cadd9
I drank all the kindness for you
     G                     Cadd9
You said that you were
Em7        A7sus4    Cadd9
Just about through
                    D       Cadd9    D     Cadd9
You said I broke you down

         G         Cadd9     G     Cadd9
I caught a glimpse of a girl today
            G                 Cadd9
In a backyard window she was
Em7        A7sus4    Cadd9
Dancing away
                    D       Cadd9
She put a Beatles record on
                    D
I couldn t tell which song

             Em              D
And then she was crying in the lamplight
Cadd9            A7sus4
Somebody came to see
      Em          D
Was she ok, was she alright?
Cadd9                      A7sus4
Then she turned and looked at me
          D                   Cadd9    G    Cadd9    G     Cadd9
And I thought yeah, she s gonna be ok

     G          Cadd9     G     Cadd9
How are you these days, how s your head?
            G                       Cadd9
I thought it was you, but I think it s
Em7  A7sus4    Cadd9
Me instead
               D
I guess I m breaking down
    Cadd9    G  Cadd9   G     Cadd9
Like particles up, dust the sky
             G
They can drift away and
C9   Em7 A7sus4     Cadd9
Not even try
```

```
                          D         Cadd9
I can t tell right from wrong
                              D
Not ever since you re gone

        Em              D
Oh, I ll miss you in the daylight
   Cadd9                 A7sus4
I wish you d just come to see
     Em        D
Am I ok, am I alright?
Cadd9                   A7sus4
Want you just to look at me
       D                  Cadd9    G    Cadd9      G
Tell me yeah, it s gonna be ok
            Cadd9 G     A7sus4
It s gonna be alright

Solo: A7sus4 D A7sus4 D Cadd9 G Cadd9 G Cadd9

                  G              Cadd9       G      Cadd9
Now it s come November and the blackbirds flew
                  G                 Cadd9
I keep seeing some Christmas trees on
     Em7 A7sus4      Cadd9
Third Avenue
                      D       Cadd9
It smells like going home
                        D
And I m standing here alone

        Em              D
So just kiss me in the moonlight
     Cadd9             A7sus4
And then maybe we ll see
      Em        D
It s ok, it s alright
   Cadd9                    A7sus4
I want you just to look at me

Em                 D
Kiss me in the moonlight
     Cadd9      A7sus4
And then maybe we ll see
      Em        A7sus4     Cadd9      A7sus4
It s ok, it s alright
      Em        A7sus4     Cadd9      A7sus4      D
It s ok, it s alright

                 Cadd9      G      Cadd9      G
Is it gonna be ok?
                 Cadd9      G      A7sus4
Is it gonna be alright?
