

Barrowland Ballroom

Amy Macdonald

Intro: G

G

Oh the lights outside they re as bright as the sun

C

They re much brighter than anyone

G

Oh the girls in the queue yes they re waiting for you

C

Well they re waiting for their song to be sung

Am

C

And when the night turns to day and all the people go away

G

D

It s not the same, tell me who s to blame?

Am

C

And when the stars shine so bright on the cold December night

G

D

I wish that I was on the stage

Am

Oh won t you take a ride with me

D

Through the Barrowland, our history

G

C

And I ll sing you a song or two

Am

D

People they may stop and stare but baby I just don t care

G

C

It s all I need, and knew

Am

And they ll drink and dance and don t you know

D

It s all part of the show we re going to

G

C

Maybe have to tell you

Am

D

The people they may stop and stare but baby I just don t care

C

D

G

Tonight, it s only me and you

G

Oh nothing beats the feeling of the high Barrowland ceiling

C

When the band start to play

G

Won t you buy me a drink and I ll tell her what I think

C

If she gets in my way
