Never Too Late
Amy Macdonald

Verse

```
C                     Dm
I ve always been a dreamer
Em                      G
With my head in the clouds
C             Dm
Never one to choose my own way
     Em                 G
I m happy to follow the crowds
C                       Dm
But something started and it won t go away
 Em                 G
Stirring from deep inside
C                       Dm
Something s changing, what it is I cannot say
    Em              G
I want to lead the way
```

Pre-Chorus

F              Dm
Come crashing down
       C         G
Like water, like rain
Dm             F
Something s started
        G
I can feel again
```

```
 C
Ain t no use in sitting around
 Dm
Waiting for the world to change
Em
Never too late to stand your ground
 G
Do what it takes to make them proud
     C
And never too late to change your mind
     Dm
The book has not been written
```

```
      Em
The page is blank, the scene is set
        G                           C       Dm      Em        G
Let s start at the beginning

Verse

C                Dm
Now I know exactly where I stand
Em                    G
Open my heart, the future in my hands
C                 Dm
How can it be that someone like me
     Em                               G
Can be the voice, a face, a choice, a future generation

 C
Ain t no use in sitting around
 Dm

Bridge

F            Dm
I heard a voice
 C            G
Calling in my head
Dm           C
Why wait until tomorrow?
    Fm
The future starts today
