

What Happiness Means To Me

Amy Macdonald

Hey everybody, this is my first time to try to post chords on eChords
I hope you can point out my mistakes if there was any :) thanks a lot
This song is from the new album a Curious Thing, i hope you like it

C Maybe in the start we would Am laugh
C Maybe in the end we would Am cry
Dm But I believe in every book I ve G ever read
And Am what you said

And Dm the moon was in the Am sky
And the G tears did fill my C eyes
And the F memories they all had C passed
But in my G head they ll always C last
And in the Dm end before I Am could be
I d shown the G world
What it means to C me
Believe it or F not, I made them C see
This is what G happiness means to C me

Will I C ever see your face Am again
Will I C ever touch your Am skin
I ll never F stop loving everything you C do
But not Am me and you

And Dm the moon was in the Am sky
And the G tears did fill my C eyes
And the F memories they all had C passed
But in my G head they ll always C last
And in the Dm end before I Am could be
I d shown the G world
What it means to C me
Believe it or F not, I made them C see
This is what G happiness means to C me

And in the F end, I made them C see
This is what G happiness means to C me
