

Postcards

An Horse

<http://profile.myspace.com/index.cfm?fuseaction=user.viewprofile&friendid=85326748>

Standard Tuning

Capo 6th fret

It s the same 3 chords throughout (so not too difficult). Just the rhythm chnages.

Intro.

Em, G, C

Verse.

Em G C Em G C
Well, old post cards are romantic when theyâ€™re intact

Em G C Em G C
And old postcards are romantically filled of fact.

Em G C
And the ones you have to watch

Em G C are the ones that keep coming back.

Em G C Em G C
And you came back; yes you came backâ€|k

Break. Em, G, C

Verse 2.

Well old cards sit on old cards.
And the streets have changed,
But I think Iâ€™m still the same.

Chorus.

Em G
[And itâ€™s not what I want to hear, what I want to see
C Em G C
but your skinâ€™s covered in postcards from you to me, to me.]

[When you see me sit by myself, youâ€™ll think that Iâ€™m waiting for someone else.

But Iâ€™m wishing for somewhere else, Iâ€™m wishing for somewhere else.] x2

[Two postcards in a month or so, well I donâ€™t know, I just donâ€™t know.] x2

And itâ€™s not what I want to hear, what I want to see
but your skinâ€™s covered in postcards from you to me, to meâ€|
to me, to me, to me, to me