

Let The Games Begin

Anarbor

Ok, so I am absolutely in love with this song, and I just spent my last 2 hours tabbing this song by ear... I could only find one version of the tab for this song, and it was only part of it, so I decided to put up the whole song for everyone else who loves it =]

So baby tell me
What s the deal with your new boyfriend?
He wears a hat to the side
With a bill he doesn t want anyone to bend

(BANG! BANG! )
I heard a knock at the door
She walked in
It s a sin to keep her begging for more

(BANG! BANG! )
I watched her clothes hit the floor
I could never say no

Chorus:

```

          Bm          D
It s a game, she s to blame
                G          E
But who s keeping score?
          Bm          D
You can tell by my grin
                G          E
That I ve done this before
G          E
          So let the games begin

```

Will the truth finally find her?

The truth s creeping up slow
