C-Am-Em

Verse:

C Am Em

A grand blank look on your face

C

When you learned it was over

Am Em

Do you ever question why

C

What could have been different

Am Em

C

We were so comfortable, living in each other's skin

Am Em

I was dying from within

Chorus:

Em Am C Em

Cause God, drugs and sex don't mean a thing

To you now, do they now, baby?

Am C Em

I don't mean anything

By it now, do I now sweetheart?

C Am Em

You should have thought about them for now

Am C Em

But God, drugs and sex don't mean a thing

To you now, do they now, baby?

C Am Em

You should have thought about them for now

C

But I've got to leave,

Am Em

I've got to leave...

Verse: C-Am-Em

Tell me where did you learn to love

(Maybe you don't want to know)

Tell me when did your hands grow cold
(It might tell you something)
If you could go back to yesterday
Would you change it all for me?
If you thought we could be together,
Would you believe it?

Chorus: Am-C-Em Am-Em

Cause God, drugs and sex donâ€™t mean a thing
To you now, do they now, baby?
I donâ€™t mean anything
By it now, do I now sweetheart?
You should have thought about them for now
But God, drugs and sex don t mean a thing
To you now, do they now, baby?
You should have thought about them for now
But I ve got to leave,
I ve got to leave...

Did you not hear me coming around alone?
Did you not see me coming along the way?
Were there bright lights leading you astray?
Were there bright lights to grant you a way from your love?
Ooh, ooh, ooh...
(For now, for now)
Oooh...
(I don t mean anything, for now)
Did you not hear me coming all along the way?
(I don t mean anything, for now)
Did you not see me coming alone?
Don t leave anymore
(I don t mean anything)
Would you change it all for me?

Let go, let go of me
Iâ€™m not here
Let go, let go of me now
Cause Iâ€™m already gone.
