          G#m              A              E
Well you sure didn't look like you were having any fun
          G#m              A              E
with that heavy-metal gaze they'll have to measure in tons
          A              E
and when you look up at the sky
A              E              A              E              B              B7
all you see are zeros / all you see are zeros and ones
E              A              B              E
you took my hand and lead me down to watch a kewpie doll parade
E              A              B              E
we let the kittens lick our hair and drank our chalky lemonade
E              A              B              E
it's not that I just didn't care I must admit I was afraid
E              A              B7              E
and I'm awfully glad my fingers resting gently on the masterfade

          G#m              A              E
the masterfade / I coulda played along G#m              A              E              A              E
the masterfade / I coulda played Mah Jongg / but it just takes too long
          A              E              A              E
and I just can't remember / which way the east wind blows
          B              F#m              B              F#m
does it matter? / If we're all matter/ what's it matter does it matter
if we're all matter when we're done?
          F#m              B F#m G#m B7
when the sky is full of zeros and ones

E A B E
 I saw you standing all alone in the electrostatic rain
E A B E
 I thought at last I d found a situation you can t explain
E A B E
 with GPS you know it s all just a matter of degrees
E A B E
 your happiness won t find you underneath that canopy of trees
G#m A E
 if the green grass is 6 the soybeans are 7
G#m A E
 the junebugs are 8 the weeds and thistles are 11
A E A E
 and if the 1s just hold thier place the 0s a smiley face
A E B B7
 when they come floating down from the heavens
E A B E
 you took my hand and lead me down to watch a papillon parade
E A B E
 we let the kittens lick our hair and drank our chalky lemonade
E A B E
 you squeezed my hand and told me softly that I shouldn t be afraid
E A E B E
 cause all the while your finger s resting gently on the masterfade
G#m A E G#m
 the masterfade I coulda played along / the masterfade
A E A E
 I coulda played Mah Jongg but it just takes too long
A E A E
 and who the hell can remember which way the east wind blows
B Bsus4 B B7
 when your lying on the ground staring up at an inverted compass
E
 I mean Christ who Knows?
