INTRO

F C (X 4)

F C
Take your apples from the earth

F C
And your fingerlings from the air

D7. G. E

If you cried when you were born
F

Cause it ain t fair

G

You got nothing, nothing to wear

Dm. C
And there s a drink that we re all needing

E F
A need to weep but we have tried

Dm. C
And though the clouds we keep on seeding

E. F.

F C
Still the county remains dry, the county remains dry

F G

The county remains dry

Dm. C
I see your coat, that it needs sewing

E. F
And these seeds will sow the corn silk bride

Dm. C
But in your absence nothing s growing

E. F.

F. C

And still the county remains dry, the county remains dry
F. G

The county remains dry

C

Well still we keep on dreaming

F C

Of that fifty-year flood

F. C

Of oceans of plasma

F. C

And rivers of blood

F. C

Take your apples from the earth

F. C

And your fingerlings from the air

D7. G. E

If you cried when you were born

F

Cause it ain t fair

G

You got nothing, nothing to wear
